

Green Medicine Webinar Series 2010 Calendar

Date	Title	Presenter	Objectives
March 10 th 2:00pm EST	Sustainability and Oral Surgery	Dr. Steven Koos, MD - Principle Surgeon and Founder of Ora Oral Surgery, Chicago, IL	Gain an understanding as to the steps involved with the construction and business operations of a green private practice office. Develop an appreciation for carefully evaluating the sustainable aspects of new technology within your practice.
May 5 th 2:00pm EST	Green Pediatrics	Dr. Lawrence Rosen, MD - Founder of Whole Child Center	Examine children's health and the environment, identify principles in integrative pediatrics that help promote sustainable healthcare. Learn to partner with families to optimize children's health from an environmental perspective.
July 14 th 2:00pm EST	Energy Consumption and Global Climate Change	Dan Bednarz, PhD – Energy & Healthcare Consultants	Understand healthcare's reliance on fossil fuels. Assess the choices and possible outcomes healthcare systems face regarding their reliance on fossil fuel energy.
September 15 th 2:00pm EST	PharmEcovigilance and Green Medicine	Ilene Ruboy, MD, PhD - Touro University	Discuss the evolution of unsustainable health care practices. Examine legislation of the use and disposal of therapeutic agents. Assess environmentally sustainable medicine has on patients.